The Evening Standard

William Glasmann, Publisher
An Independent Newspaper
(ESTABLISHED 1870.)

This paper will always fight for progress and reform. It will not knowingly tolerate injustice or corruption, and will always fight demagogues of all parties. It will oppose privileged classes and public plunderers. It will never lack sympathy with the poor. It will always remain devoted to the public welfare and will never be satisfied with merely printing news. It will always be drastically independent and will never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICAN TICKET

For President
THEODORE ROOSEVELT
of New York
For Vice-President
HIRAM JOHNSON
of California

HIS CONFESSION OF FAITH.

Theodore Roosevelt's "Confession of Faith" is the greatest speech in the material for thought that it presents, ever delivered in a party convention in the United States.

The leader of the Progressives has responded to the hopes of the American people for something better than the platitudes and meaningless utterances of the convention spell-binder. Roosevelt has pointed the way for great reforms, the principal one of which has to do with making possible the rule of the people.

On labor problems, on tariff, on trust control, Roosevelt offers solutions which must appeal to the voters of all parties as reasonable and fair and yet sufficiently radical to bring the desired results.

WHAT A MAN OF WEALTH COULD DO.

Six years ago the Weber Club commenced a campaign having for its object the establishing of a bathing resort and sanitarium on Promontory Point. At that time the club named William Glasmann as chairman of a committee which, in furtherance of the object to be attained, gave an excursion which drew 5,000 people to the proposed site of the lake resort and netted the club money enough to refurnish the club rooms.

Since then repeated attempts have been made to have a resort opened at Promontory Point and of late there have been renewed efforts, which are commendable.

We rejoice that progress has been reported on this long-considered plan to give Ogden a lake attraction.

Here is an opportunity for one of our philanthropists to open his purse strings and build for Ogden a bathing resort on the shores of Great Salt Lake.

EVIDENCE OF HONESTY.

Yesterday the reactionaries were announcing that the steam-roller was being operated at the "Bull Moose" gathering in Chicago; today they are complaining that the whole proceedings are too harmonious.

Whatever occurs at the Chicago convention will prove disappointing to the Standpatters. They have resolved to be displeased, and they should be allowed to indulge in their displeasure to the limit.

The convention is not being held for the purpose of receiving the endorsement of the reactionaries, in fact the very opposite is desired. Were the Standpat press to speak kindly of the Progressive national convention the people would have cause to grow suspicious and to doubt the honesty of purpose of the reformers.

While the reactionaries continue in their fury, raving and ranting over the things which the Chicago convention does not do to meet their approval, the great body of the American people will not cease to have an abiding faith in the Progressives.

RIDICULE WILL NOT SAVE THEM.

The Provo Herald, quoting from an exchange, says:

The colonel has Governor Johnson and Mr. Heney as champions in California. Mr. Glasmann in Utah, Judge Lindsey in Colorado, Governor Stubbs in Kansas and kindred spirits in a dozen other states. Looking over the list, it is strange that a person's mind goes back involuntarily to the description of the war horse in Job, especially where that famous horse's "neck is clothed with thunder," where "he paweth in the valley and swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage," and where "he saith among the trumpets, 'Ha ha!' and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains and the shouting." And when it comes to these things, it must not be forgotten that the colonel himself is no slouch.

The pawing and fierceness and rage of the war horse in Job will be tame compared with the wrath of the people when they fall upon the necks of their betrayers and crush the Taftites to the ground.

That which the reactionaries have sought to represent as rant and bluster will prove terrifying when those political charlatans finally realize that their trickery has failed to cloak their unsightliness in the eyes of the American voters and that the truth can no longer be discredited simply by loud guffaws.

Employing ridicule in reply to the Progressive speakers will not save the reactionaries from rebuke.

WHEN SUCKERS BITE.

Tuesday several gentlemen met in the Boyd Park building, Salt Lake City, discussing the fact that the state government of Utah exercised about as much good horse sense in conducting the financial affairs of the state as does Tammany Hall in New York City, which is known as the prince of grafters. Among those present were Hon. Alma Eldredge, Hon. W. D. Livingston, Colonel Anderson and William Glasmann. It was pointed out by the latter that it was worse than a crime to allow the secretary of the state land board and the state treasurer to have in their possession hundreds of thousands of dollars of the state's money and not pay interest on the same to the state. It was stated that the treasurer had over two million dollars in various funds, and never one cent's interest does the state receive. It was shown that the secretary of the land board has about a quarter of a million dollars in his hands that he calls a "suspense fund." On all of the funds in the hands of both officers the state of Utah should receive at least 4 per cent interest from the banks. That is what is paid to others by the banks. Practically a hundred thousand dollars in interest is lost by the state each year. How best to call the people's attention to this matter was discussed. Finally Mr. Glasmann said:

"The boys are all asking me if I want a congressional nomination I think I will just tell them I want to be secretary of the land board and they will all wonder why I should switch from a big office to a little one, and that will hold attention. The Standpat papers will all grab at it just as a sucker takes a hook."

Sure enough The Tribune took the bait all right. Now comes the Ogden Examiner. It too takes the hook, swallowing line and all, joyfully reproducing The Tribune's story on Glasmann wanting to be secretary of the state land board.

Will some good Republican Standpatter get the state treasurer and the secretary of the state land board to tell who gets the benefit of the big funds they hold for the dear people of Utah?

How long will the people of Utah continue to be worked?

LABOR NEWS OF ALL COUNTRIES

Review of Compensation Act—Wage Discussion in Toronto—Union Labor Wins Great Victory in Ohio Valley—Boot and Shoe Workers to Amalgamate Organizations.

A review of the first eight months' experience of the compensation act of Washington shows that 6,985 accidents were reported to the commission. Of these, 4,525 were allowed, 1,319 are in process of adjustment and 1,141 were either disallowed, suspended or waived. There are 5,200 firms listed and assessed, and the number of employees total 125,000. Paid into accident fund, $640,951.30; paid out on claims, $216,435.21; invested in interest-bearing reserves to guarantee pensions, $143,798.70; net balance in accident fund, $274,713.33.

One thousand members of the Builders' Laborers' Union at Toronto, Can., assembled recently to discuss the question of wages, and it was decided to interview the leading bosses and ask them to grant an increase of two cents an hour. The present rate of wages is 25 cents an hour for an eight-hour day. If the two cents increase is granted, the men will be satisfied. The membership of the union is 1,300. If the bosses do not agree to the increase asked for it would not surprise labor men if the laborers went out on strike.

One of the greatest victories ever gained by union labor in the Ohio valley has just been won. The largest contractors of Wheeling, W. Va., who have been fighting the combined building crafts, signed an agreement with the representatives of the Ohio Valley District Council of Carpenters and the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor assembly. The contest which has been conducted by the building trades was against a strong combination of "open shop" advocates. The result of securing the agreement will be beneficial to all of the organizations in the valley.

There is a movement on foot in various places to amalgamate organizations in the shoe manufacturing industry, there being numerous local organizations outside the regular and recognized Boot and Shoe Workers' union. The latter organization has been hampered in its work by unions in the shoe trade not affiliated and antagonistic, but with the boot and shoe workers have steadily made advances in wages and conditions. Meetings have recently been held with a view to "getting together" under the banner of the recognized organization, and with a prospect of final success.
